£3 application fee per ticket must be paid before application is processed.

Where more than one class of ticket is allocated, the ticket secretary shall award tickets impartially and take into account the numbers in each party so that all tickets are used.

Any dispute over the way that international tickets are allocated should be referred to the Chairman for a final and binding decision.

The committee reserves the right to withhold some of the allocation to pass on to sponsors or RFU-approved hospitality companies for the benefit of the club.

All tickets are subject to a further £7 booking fee per ticket.
